Toyota Sprint Series Round 3 Blyton Park 20.07.14

Blyton Park in Lincolnshire was revisited for the third round of the 2014 Toyota Sprint Series. Javelin had once again come up with an exciting and challenging course, which included the recently installed long left hand corner known as "Curva Grande". After severe thunderstorms and torrential rain the night before, the drivers taking part were relieved to see a dry track as they began their sighting laps on Sunday morning. Unfortunately this was not to last, as after the fifth run the heavens opened again, turning the circuit and paddock into something more resembling a powerboat course rather than a racing circuit! Results were made final after run 5.

Results In Reverse Class Order

Class F Street - Up to 1.0 Normally Aspirated

Toyota's Tim Huxley (above) bought along a brand new Aygo, and with much interest surrounding the little car proceeded to enjoy his first competitive event. Adrian Smith also managed to find time to have one run in the car, but still only finished 1.44 seconds behind Tim.

Class D Street - Up to 1.6 Normally Aspirated

Class D Pro – Up to 1.6 Normally Aspirated

Class C Street - Over 1.6 Normally Aspirated

Class C Pro- Over 1.6 Normally Aspirated

Another to set his fastest lap of the day on his last run was Chris Girdler (above left). This was enough to beat his only opposition in the class, Ollie Novell (above right).

Class B Street - Up To 1.6 Forced Induction

Class B Pro – Up To 1.6 Forced Induction

Series regular Phil Cutler grabbed Class B Pro and seventeenth overall, despite being unhappy with the power his MR2 was making.

Class A3 Street – Over 1.6 Forced Induction

Class A3 Pro – Over 1.6 Forced Induction

Joe Tapply (above) won Class A3 Pro and finished fourteenth overall.

GT86 Trophy

A brand new GT86 & BRZ sprint series is growing within the TSS championship. The cars are also eligible for overall points in the main series. Split in to 5 classes depending on modifications keeps the competition close, some seven competitors taking to the track for the third event.

Class N3 - Normally Aspirated - Standard Car

William Locock (above) put in a very respectable performance in his first ever sprint to win the class and finish twenty seventh overall.

Class N2 - Normally Aspirated - Modified - Street

Class F2 - Forced Induction - Street

Class F1 - Forced Induction - Pro

Adrian Smith (above) put on yet another dominant performance, all five of his laps in the Fensport GT86R being faster than any of his competitors, resulting in not only the class win, but victory in the event overall.
